THE following Addreſs from the Burgh of Jedburgh, was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Hamilton and Brandon.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Jedburgh, in the County of Roxburgh, in the South Border of North-Britain.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Lord Provoſt, Baillies and Town-Council of Your Antient and Loyal Burgh of Jedburgh, for our ſelves and in name of the Capital Burgeſſes, and whole Incorporation thereof, humbly beg leave to approach Your Sacred Perſon, humbly and heartily acknowledging, with the reſt of Your Loyal Subjects, Your Majeſty's Goodneſs and Royal Condeſcendance, of communicating to Your Subjects the Terms of a ſafe and honourable Peace, which cannot but be moſt acceptable to all good People.

The Proſpect of this Happineſs (it being Your Majeſty's only Prerogative to make Peace and War) may be looked upon as the Effect of the great Care Your Majeſty has of Your People: And we confidently hope, as Your Majeſty and Your Parliament have ſo harmoniouſly agreed, as the World now ſees, that through the Bleſſing of God and Your Endeavours, an happy and laſting Peace, to the Comfort and Satisfaction of all Your Majeſty's good Subjects and Allies, may be concluded.

The great Care Your Majeſty has ever had, and continues to have, in ſecuring of our Laws and Liberties, and of the Proteſtant Religion as Eſtabliſhed by Law, doth lay upon us the greateſt Obligations of Gratitude, Loyalty and Obedience, which we firmly reſolve to expreſs upon all Occaſions.

And that the Almighty may long preſerve Your Majeſty, bleſs all Your great and glorious Undertakings with Succeſs, and that this great Work which Your Majeſty has ſo far advanced, may be ſoon brought to an happy Concluſion, and long live to reap the Fruits and Effects thereof, and thereafter receive an Immortal Crown of Glory, are, and ſhall ever be, the ſincere Prayers of, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal, moſt Faithful, and Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Newton, was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Hamilton and Brandon.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Steward, Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newton, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, under the Ties both of Gratitude and Duty, are always ready to ſubmit to Your Royal Pleaſure in the Exerciſe of Your juſt Prerogatives; and the making Peace being, by our Conſtitution, the undoubted Right of the Crown, we were as well by Principle, as out of an entire Confidence in Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, reſign'd to whatever Terms Your Majeſty ſhould think fit to make, and ſhould not have preſumed to approach Your Throne upon this Occaſion: But ſince Your Majeſty's gracious Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms upon which a Peace may be had, calls for the Acknowledgment of all Your Subjects, we humbly deſire, among the reſt, to pay our Tribute of Thanks for this great Goodneſs, and beg leave at the ſame time to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the approach of Peace, which we reckon now ſecured by the poſſeſſion of that important Fortreſs of Dunkirk delivered to Your Troops. Peace, tho' always eſteem'd a Bleſſing, muſt be the more welcome to us after ſuch an Effuſion of Treaſure and Blood, ſo unequally ſuſtained by this Nation, as has been in this War; and we cannot but admire that ſignal Inſtance of Your Majeſty's tender regard to the People of this Realm, extended to future Ages, in Your Concern for ſecuring the Eſtabliſh'd Succeſſion.

May Almighty God, who has ſo far proſper'd Your Majeſty's Arms, as to gain great Advantages to Your Allies, make You the happy Inſtrument of concluding ſuch a Peace as may give to Your Realms thoſe very acceptable and conſiderable ones, mentioned in Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Speech. May Your Majeſty long live, the great Arbiter of Europe; and may You enjoy the invaluable Bleſſings of Peace in a quiet and happy Reign, not only free from War Abroad, but undiſturbed by Faction at Home.

The following Addreſs from the City of Glaſgow, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Ila.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the City of Glaſgow.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE humbly beg leave to acknowledge the many Bleſſings enjoyed by us under Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, and to declare our entire Confidence in Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, which as it has ſhined with the brighteſt Luſtre during the Courſe of a long and neceſſary War, ſo we doubt not it will be as Conſpicuous in making of Peace, upon ſuch Terms as ſhall be Honourable to Your Majeſty, (whoſe undoubted Prerogative it is to make Peace and War) highly Advantageous to Your Kingdoms, and ſafe to Your Allies.

It's with the utmoſt Pleaſure we call to mind the Expreſſions of Your Majeſty's Concern for ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law Eſtabliſhed, in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

It is no leſs our Happineſs that we have Your Royal Aſſurances, in behalf of the Church of Scotland, whoſe unſhaken Loyalty and Dutiful Behaviour to Your Majeſty, and whoſe Eſtabliſhment being an eſſential Foundation of the Treaty of Union, we are fully perſuaded will always entitle it to Your Majeſty's Protection.

May Your Majeſty continue to be a glorious Defender of the Proteſtant Religion, a powerful Supporter of the Liberties of Europe; may Your Conduct always be bleſt, ſo as to enable You to give Peace to Your Enemies Abroad, and Your Adminiſtration ſuch as may perpetuate You the Delight of Your Subjects at Home; may Your Majeſty in Health long wear Your Crown on Earth, and in the end receive one that is incorruptible in Heaven; This is the conſtant Prayer of, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, moſt Faithful, and moſt Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the County of Cumberland, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Chriſtopher Muſgrave, Bar. being introduced by his Grace John Duke of Buckingham and Normanby, Lord Preſident of the Council.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and principal Freeholders of the County of Cumberland.

MADAM,

AMong the many Glories of Your Majeſty's Reign, which has never been equalled, or can be enough admired, there is none demands our ſtricter Gratitude, than Your Majeſty's communicating to Your Parliament the Terms of Peace, which France may be brought to ſubmit to; the Contents of which entirely redound to the Honour of Your Majeſty, the apparent Intereſt of the Grand Alliance, and the diſtinguiſh'd Advantages of Your own Dominions: And all this Your Majeſty has taken Care ſhould be perform'd by the ſurrender of the important Fort and Harbour of Dunkirk.

The Difficulties that have been raiſed to obſtruct Your Majeſty's bringing to an happy end this Your generous and pious Undertaking, have been but too obvious, when we ſee thoſe turbulent and malicious Spirits among us, who have made it their Buſineſs to ſpread ſuch Doctrines as are highly injurious to their Queen, and their native Country.

But we beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that on all Occaſions, we will exert the utmoſt of our Power, to render Your Majeſty's Reign eaſy to Your ſelf, as You have made it happy to Your People.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Florence, Sept. 6. N. S. Yeſterday Her Majeſty's Ships the Cornwall, Mary and Lion came into Leghorn, having ſail'd in twelve Days from Barcelona, where they left Admiral Jennings employed in landing the Forces which he Tranſported from Italy. They touch'd at Genoa, and left the Superbe there to carry Diſpatches to the Admiral, who intends to ſail for Port Maon, as ſoon as the Troops are diſembark'd.

Berlin, Sept. 20. N. S. We have receiv'd Advice from Pomerania, that the Enterprize which has been long deſign'd on the Iſland of Rugen is again deferred, and that ſome Swediſh Frigats came lately ſo near the Shore, that they Fired ſeveral times at the Czar and King Auguſtus, as they were viewing the Country, but their Shot did no Harm. General Ronne is marched towards Lithuania, with all the Muſcovite Dragoons.
